

Accord Sought On Changes In Constitution

LANSING (AP)—House members have submitted a package of proposed constitutional amendments to a six-man "negotiating committee" to determine if there can be bi-partisan agreement.

Partisan differences over what the package should and should not contain emerged Thursday as Republicans and Democrats met separately.

Neither party took a poll of its members on the proposed changes in election provisions of the Constitution, but agreed to send them to the special committee for further talks.

House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, said he expects "something" in the way of a package to result from negotiations by Tuesday, when the parties will meet privately again.

Democrats Cool

"We need to find out if we have enough leeway to come up with something. We recognize the issue is orderly government. That's the reason for the negotiating committee," Green said.

Republicans are not in accord on the contents of the amendments to be submitted to voters in a special April 28 election, said Green, but might supply "60 per cent" of the votes needed to get them through the House.

Among Democrats, however, coolness toward the proposed amendments was more apparent than at any previous time.

Democratic state chairman Zolton Ferency told his party's caucus that the Democratic policy committee, made up key party leaders, is opposed to legislators sending "self-serving" amendments to a vote of the people.

Democrats, it was reported, were split over whether to endorse amendments that would allow lawmakers to hold down other government jobs and to give House members four-year terms.

Approval Predicted

Both of these changes are part of the key resolution, the purpose of which is to freeze existing legislative districts for this year's election unless a new apportionment plan is in effect as of June 1.

In addition to the resolution freezing of legislative districts, the proposals include changes to permit township officers to run in spring elections and county officers to run this year for two-year terms, and four years beginning in 1966.

Rep. E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit, has said that, despite Democratic objections to the package, he expects it to be approved by the caucus and to pass the House with better than the two-thirds (74 votes) required.

The attorney general's office advised both party caucuses Thursday that there are no apparent legal obstacles to the plan for freezing legislative districts temporarily if no new apportionment plan is approved.

IT'S NEVER TOO EARLY to start loving, chum, and here we have a fine jolly start on the affection that oozes on Valentine Day at the Washington School Kindergarten. The kindergartners looking at the class valentine on the school poster board are Kathy Mineau and Keith Lohfink. In the heart are the pictures of all the members of the Washington kindergarten, morning and afternoon classes. The two shifts never get to see each other in school, so the valentine gives them both a chance to see if there are any likely valentine prospects on the other shift. England Will Keep Trade With Cuba, Johnson Told WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home of Great Britain wings home today after his get-acquainted talks with President Johnson, having made clear England will continue trading with Cuba.

The main purpose of the Anglo-American summit, spokesmen stressed, was for Johnson and Douglas-Home to get to know each other before each is caught up in the whirl of election campaigns.

In this respect the get-together was a complete success, said a high American official, who commented: "The farmer from Scotland and the farmer from Texas understood each other perfectly."

Cyprus Crisis Studied

Although Thursday's joint communiqué at the conclusion of the two-day meeting mentioned only points on which Johnson and Douglas-Home agreed, both sides conceded that there were issues on which—as the British leader put it at a later news conference—"differences in emphasis" exist.

They were trade with Cuba, and trade with and credits to Communist countries. Britain views trade as its lifeblood and, as Douglas-Home put it, does not believe in boycotts.

The two government leaders and their foreign policy chiefs, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler, devoted most of their time to the crisis in Cyprus.

Relatively little time was devoted to other issues, informants said. Where opinions differed, the positions were stated forcefully and it was quickly recognized that no persuasion would close the gap.

Peace Policies Match

Briefly, these were the is-

1. On Southeast Asia, the British pledged complete support for U.S. policies in Viet Nam, and the United States reaffirmed its support for Malaysia.

2. Both sides asked for stepped-up efforts to formulate new proposals aimed at breaking the deadlock in East-West talks on Germany and Berlin.

3. It was agreed that further relaxation of East-West tension depends largely on the outcome of the Geneva disarmament conference and action on Western proposals for a nuclear freeze and the stationing of control posts on both sides of the Iron Curtain to detect preparations for a surprise attack.

4. Though the interests of the two countries are not exactly identical, both sides pledged to work toward the success of the forthcoming tariff cutting negotiations in Geneva.

5. The British are not quite convinced about the military effectiveness of the U.S.-proposed multilateral nuclear force.

6. On trade with Communist countries in general and with Cuba in particular, the British maintained their traditional attitude which Douglas-Home summed up this way: "We have to trade if we want to live. We do not believe in boycotts." Britain will not sell arms or other strategic materials to the Communists, the prime minister promised.

Johnson disagreed but U.S. officials conceded that the United States can do nothing but watch closely what the practical consequences of Britain's more liberal trade policies toward the Communists will be.

7. The same applies to long-term credits to the Communists.

Higgins To Run For Governor

FERNDALE (AP) — Former State Sen. George N. Higgins is virtually a contender now for the Republican nomination for governor.

Commenting "I can beat George Romney," Higgins said Thursday he would have a "final announcement" after March 1 though he avoided a flat statement of candidacy.

"As it stands right now," he said, "I can say I'm pretty much made up my mind."

The 63-year-old former legislator, now chairman of the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESCC), had said earlier he was considering making the race.

He appeared just a hairbreadth from positive candidacy Monday, repeating that he would have a "final announcement" when ready.

Higgins, a car dealer and tax expert in his half dozen terms in the House and Senate, criticized Romney.

He declared the governor had no right to claim credit for economic progress in Michigan since, he said, progress has been the result of good automobile business in other states as well as Michigan.

"That's what's bringing prosperity," he said. "It's nothing that the governor is doing."

Romney has yet to say whether he will seek a second term in office.

At Republican dinner in Dearborn Thursday night the governor said again he would have a decision within few weeks.

Hatcher Scorns Idea For MSU Medical School

LANSING (AP)—University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher heaped scorn upon the idea of a medical school at Michigan State University in a speech a few miles from the MSU campus Thursday.

Addressing the U-M alumni clubs' legislative dinner in downtown Lansing, Hatcher cited "objective, non-partisan studies" which have outlined the state's educational needs and financial requirements in the years ahead.

None of these include the cost of a third state medical school at MSU, he said.

"In taking this position, we (U of M) may appear to be jealously protecting a vested interest," he said. "Nothing is further from our minds."

"We firmly believe, however, that whenever the resources which the state has so carefully and over such a long period of time built up in Ann Arbor are adequate to meet the needs—or whenever these resources or those at another institution, such as Wayne (State University in Detroit), can be augmented to meet the demands more economically than new facilities can be created elsewhere—it is our responsibility to state the facts clearly and unequivocally."

Hatcher cited a report of a special committee named by the Michigan Coordinating Council for Public Higher Education, Education, which recommended expanding facilities at Wayne State and developing U-M facilities in the basic sciences at MSU.

MSU President John Hannah retorted to Hatcher today by blaming "purposeful misreading of facts" for the criticisms of the plan for a two-year medical school at Michigan State.

"There's no sense in institutions fighting a civil war over this," Hannah said.

"I don't know how many times I've stated our position," he said. "MSU has no plans to establish a four year medical school in the foreseeable future, at least in my time."

Hannah said MSU decided to start a two-year program after studies made by the Commonwealth Fund indicated one answer to the doctor lag in the country was he establishment of several such schools. Two-year schools were felt to be a means of wiping out the 800 student-a-year dropout total in the four-year medical schools, he said.

Steamship Line Will Tie Up 4 Auto Carriers

DETROIT (AP) — T. J. McCarthy Steamship Co. said Thursday it will not operate its fleet of four specially designed car carrying freighters on the Great Lakes this year.

Company President T. J. McCarthy said that 250 crew members assigned to the ships will not be recalled at the start of the lakes shipping season.

McCarthy said increased competition from railroad carriers forced the company to discontinue its car carrying operations between Detroit and the eastern states.

Soviet's Offer To Open Berlin Wall Rejected

BONN, Germany (AP)—The West German government and the West Berlin Senate turned down today the East German offer to reopen the Berlin wall for the Easter holidays.

A joint announcement by the government and the Senate said they were fully agreed on the refusal.

The East Berlin government said Thursday night it was willing to allow West Berliners to visit East Berlin during Easter on the same basis they had during the Christmas holidays.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's government and the West Berlin Senate accused the East German government of misusing the Christmas pass agreement for political purposes.

The East German government tried to use the Christmas agreement to bulwark its three-Germans' theory, under which West Germany, East Germany and West Berlin are looked upon as separate political entities. This theory would end hopes for the German reunification sought by Erhard's government and West Berlin under the leadership of Mayor Willy Brandt.

The Communists offered the same conditions that allowed more than 500,000 West Berliners to visit relatives in East Berlin for family reunions during the Christmas and New Year's holidays on one-day passes.

The East Germans suggested renewal of the old agreement Thursday at the sixth meeting between Erich Wendt, East Germany's deputy cultural affairs minister, and Horst Korber, a West Berlin city official. They negotiated the previous agreement.

The holiday agreement gave West Berliners their first chance to visit relatives in East Berlin since the Communists erected the wall in August 1961. Thousands of West Berliners waited for hours in bitter cold and snow to apply for one-day crossing permits.

West Berlin newspapers bitterly assailed the East Germans for insisting on such an ordeal of red tape. Since then, Western officials have demanded a new method of handling crossing applications.

To meet these objections, the East Germans proposed opening temporary permit offices in West Berlin schools as early as Feb. 25 for an Easter crossing period from March 21 to March 30, Easter Sunday is on March 29.

The East Germans gave no indication how long they would keep the wall open for the Whitsunday holiday, Whitsunday falls on May 17.

Injecting two new elements, East Germans indicated they favored special rapid processing for family emergencies and suggested easier requirements for the reunion of separated husbands and wives.

Cyprus Problem Headed For UN

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — President Makarios today rejected the British-American proposal to land an international peace force on embattled Cyprus and will take the matter to the United Nations immediately, authoritative diplomatic sources said.

Sporadic fighting persisted between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

There was no immediate official statement from Makarios or from U.S. Undersecretary of State George Ball, who ended three days of discussions in Nicosia.

Presidential palace sources said the Greek Cypriot leader insisted that any international force be under control of the U.N. Security Council.

The U.S.-British plan called for an Atlantic Alliance army of 10,000 men with about 2,000 U.S. soldiers to keep peace.

There was no reaction to the hint from high Washington sources that Makarios wants an international peace force of British Commonwealth nations excluding American soldiers. Cyprus has been a commonwealth member since independence from Britain in 1960.

Greece and Turkey have treaties to defend Cyprus from aggression and both keep small garrisons on Cyprus for that purpose.

Turkey is determined to protect the Turkish Cypriot minority, which charges Makarios wants to curb its rights by constitutional changes. These set off the fighting that began last Christmas and brought in more British troops as a truce force.

The cease-fire reached after savage fighting Thursday at Limassol on the south coast restored relative calm in this eastern Mediterranean island.

Sporadic shooting was reported, however, in the western coast city of Paphos this morning.

British truce officials said that before the guns were silenced in Limassol, at least 16 Turkish Cypriots and one Greek Cypriot were killed. More than 35 Turks were wounded but the number of Greek wounded was not known, the British said.

Another major difference between the two bills relates to the deduction, for federal income tax purposes, of state and local taxes. The House bill would abolish the deduction of state and local gasoline and special excise taxes, like those on tobacco and liquor, but permit income, general sales and real estate still to be deducted. The Senate version would continue the present provisions.

Conferees Set To Approve Cut Of 11.5 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — House and Senate conferees expect to hammer out a tax reduction compromise in about three days next week—which would mean millions of Americans could begin drawing bigger pay envelopes before mid-March.

One day of preliminary discussions this week apparently demonstrated willingness on both sides to resolve amicably the more than 200 changes the Senate made in the House bill. All but a handful of these are technical or minor.

The conferees get back to discussions and probably start voting Monday. One of them predicted agreement by Wednesday—possibly even by Tuesday—on a bill to reduce personal and corporate income taxes by about $11.5 billion. This would be bigger than the House cut and smaller than the Senate version.

Ready By Feb. 24

Last week the Senate approved a cut of $11.6 billion. The House had approved a cut of $11.1 billion last Sept. 25.

The rest of the week would be needed to write a conference report and the House would be expected to act—with approval virtually assured—about Feb. 24. Senate leaders have spoken of taking the measure up the day the House finishes work on it. Under such a schedule, the bill could go to President Johnson for his prompt signature before the end of February.

Withholding rate cuts—the equivalent of a small pay raise for wage-earning and salaried Americans—would begin a week later if, as expected, the conferees retain the Senate wording on this point.

Two Major Differences

Two big issues are in controversy between the two chambers. The House voted more lenient tax treatment of certain long-term capital gains than present law provides. The Senate deleted this provision.

Another major difference between the two bills relates to the deduction, for federal income tax purposes, of state and local taxes. The House bill would abolish the deduction of state and local gasoline and special excise taxes, like those on tobacco and liquor, but permit income, general sales and real estate still to be deducted. The Senate version would continue the present provisions.

Flogging Bill Up In Lansing

LANSING (AP) — Michigan would join Delaware in authorizing public flogging if a bill filed Thursday dealing with juvenile delinquents becomes law.

Rep. Arthur Law, D-Pontiac, said the bill he alone is sponsoring would revive "an American institution — the old-fashioned whipping with a switch or a belt."

"I don't think this will lead to the whipping post such as Delaware has on the books. But it's time we quit theorizing about what causes delinquency and do something to curb it," he said.

Law, 58, an Oklahoma-born grocer and veteran of three two-year terms in the legislature, would authorize public corporal punishment, preferably administered by the offender's father, on order from a probate judge.

This punishment would be in addition to other sentencing and be "administered by the father of the child or peace officer designated by the probate court," the bill says. "The court shall designate the place and time of punishment."

"I think the judge should order it to be done in the school, in front of the other students," Law said. "They could call an assembly for it."

Gladstone Tops In Blood Clinic

The blood procurement clinic for Delta County achieved success in Gladstone for the second consecutive time—but failed of the goals in Escanaba.

Gladstone's good showing received an expression of appreciation from Mrs. Edith Olsen, Delta County Red Cross Chapter blood chairman.

"The goal at Gladstone was 95 pints," she said. "Ninety-two pints were collected at the clinic there on Tuesday and five more Gladstone donors came to Escanaba to put Gladstone over its quota."

The Badger Blood Bank is sponsored by the Red Cross for Delta County. This provides that every Delta County resident may receive free blood in any hospital in the nation. Only payment is the hospital's charge for administration.

In Escanaba on Wednesday, second day of the clinic, 100 pints were collected, and on Thursday the total collection was 87 pints. The goal on each day was 135 pints.

The total collection at the clinics was 279 pints. In addition seven pints were collected at St. Francis Hospital since the clinic last December, bringing the total for Delta County to 286 or 79 short of the goal.

Meetings are to be held in advance of the next visit of the bloodmobile with service organizations and other groups in an effort to bring better response in meeting the county's obligation, said Mrs. Olsen.

Plan Endorsed For Competition At Interlochen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department Thursday endorsed a proposal made by the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich., for an international youth music competition this summer.

Hugh B. Sutherland, a department spokesman, said U. S. diplomatic posts throughout the world have been instructed to search for qualified contestants.

The competition is scheduled for Aug. 24-26 at the camp, located in northwestern Lower Michigan. The United States Information Agency also announced that it would carry the competitions over Voice of America broadcasts to 30 million foreign listeners.

Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, founder and president of the Interlochen Arts Academy, which operates the camp, said: "No political, racial, ideological or linguistic reasons will warrant the non-acceptance of application."

Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service is sponsoring the meeting and issuing a special invitation to people from Dickinson, Menominee and Delta counties.

The meeting will last until 3 p. m. with an hour for lunch.

Speakers will include Foresters Roy Skog and Lester Bell; Lynn Reynolds, commercial sugar bush supply man; Rick Hartwig, MSU economist, and R. W. Robbins, MSU specialist in maple syrup production.

Refuge Rules Reform To Seek More Public Use

New recreation regulations, designed to do a better job of taking care of more than 12 million people who annually visit Seney National Wildlife Refuge and several hundred other refuges, hatcheries, and other Federal wildlife conservation areas, have been proposed by the Department of the Interior.

The regulations would permit public recreational use when it is compatible with the primary conservation purpose of an area. Authority to provide recreational facilities was given by Congress in 1962. The Accelerated Public Works program has permitted recreational development on some refuges and hatcheries in distressed areas.

The proposed regulations recognized the need for managing access to refuge and hatchery areas, and cover the use of roads and trails, operation of boats and vehicles, and hunting and fishing by the public. The extent to which various types of outdoor recreation can be enjoyed is defined. Limitations are imposed for the collection of scientific specimens of plant and animal life and for archeological and paleontological studies.

Boat rentals and other such recreational services would be provided by concessionaires, in most cases, under contract with the Federal Government.

Lake Michigan Rise Predicted Within 30 Days

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. Lake Survey today reported a stabilization in the water levels of the Great Lakes and predicted a rise for lakes Huron, St. Clair and Michigan in the next 30 days.

Only Lake Superior was expected to continue a downward trend.

The stabilization halts a downward trend in lake levels which has brought several of the lakes to a point near all time record lows.

Looking ahead, the survey said Lake St. Clair, a popular waterway for pleasure boat operators, is expected to rise four inches by March 30. Lake St. Clair currently was reported at 15 inches above its 1926 low. The lake's water surface elevation of 571.12 feet is 4 inches below the level reported at the same time last year and 46 inches below the 1952 high for this date.

Lake Huron's elevation was reported at 575.45 feet, one inch below the previous 1926 low for this date and 10 inches below the level reported last year. Huron's level is 69 inches below its 1860 high for this date. The survey said it is expected to rise an inch in the next 30 days.

A one inch rise also was forecast for Lake Michigan. The survey placed its elevation at 575.45 feet, one inch below the 1926 low for this date and 10 inches below the year ago level. The lake remains 69 inches below its 1860 high for this date.

Lake Erie's elevation was placed at 568.50 feet, 12 inches above the 1935 low for this date and six inches below the level last year on this date. The present level is 44 inches below the lake's 1952 high for this date.

The survey said Lake Erie water levels are expected to remain the same for the next 30 days.

Lake Ontario's elevation was reported at 242.40 feet, 10 inches below the level reported at this time last year. The elevation is 48 inches below the 1886 high for this date. The lake is expected to rise three inches in the next 30 days.

Only Lake Superior was expected to drop according to the survey report. Lake Superior's elevation was placed at 599.65 feet, 14 inches above the 1926 low for this date and equal to the level reported at this time last year.

The present level is 17 inches below the 1926 high for this date and three inches below the level reported on this date last month. The report said the Lake Superior level is expected to drop two inches in the next 30 days.

Progress Told By Sun Life

Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada sold more than one billion dollars of life insurance for the fifth consecutive year and scored records in all phases of its operations in 1963. Nevin J. Reynolds, Sun Life Service Manager in Escanaba announced following the Company's 93rd annual meeting. Policy dividends will be increased in 1964 for the 15th consecutive year.

Reynolds said the Sun Life which is the 12th largest life company in North America, made important progress during 1963, and total new life insurance sales, of $1,183,000,000 were higher than in any previous year and five per cent above 1962.

Life insurance in force at year end totaled $11,512,000,000. Over a quarter of this amount insures U. S. policyholders. Group life insurance contracts of $4,557,000,000 represented 40 per cent of the total while the balance was individual life. Annuities were the equivalent of an additional $2,706,000,000 of life insurance.

Last year Sun Life earned a net 4.99 per cent on its assets—up from 4.87 per cent in 1962—and assets increased by $115.4 million to $2,698,000,000.

During 1963 the Company paid a record $217,000,000 in policy benefits, over two-thirds of which was paid to living policyholders and annuitants and the balance to the beneficiaries of deceased policyholders. Dividends to be paid to Sun Life policyholders in 1964 will be $51,000,000—nine per cent more than in 1963.

At the annual meeting in Montreal, Feb. 11, President Alistair M. Campbell said the mortality rate experienced by the Company is subject to variation from year to year. He reported the mortality experience in Canada last year "continued close to the very favorable rate of 1962" but "rates in other countries were moderately higher."

Speaking of the economic climate, Campbell said that in Canada, the U. S. and other major areas where Sun Life operates the business outlook indicates another year of "satisfactory growth" and a successful year in 1964.

Mystery Books Are Exchanged

Peter Gosling, a University of Michigan geographer will give a free public lecture at Carnegie Public Library on Wednesday, March 25, at 8 p. m. on Southeast Asia, where the Viet Nam crisis threatens loss of the area to the Communists.

The Carnegie Public Library board of trustees has approved an exchange of books with Memorial, Dickinson and Schoolcraft county libraries. First books to move in the exchange were 100 mystery books. Each of the libraries participating in the exchange selected 100 titles from its shelves and in the exchange Carnegie Library found only three duplications of books it had exchanged.

The exchange will permit rotation of who-dun-its to give local murder fans more choice on their favorite literature. The books on exchange at the Carnegie Library this month have a blue band on the top to guide amateur detectives to the new offerings.

The exchange helps stretch book money, the trustees said. National Library Week, April 12-18 will be observed jointly by Delta and Schoolcraft counties and a meeting will be held of the committee in charge at Gladstone on March 5. Library circulation in January increased more than 250 books over January 1963. Juvenile circulation dipped because of work underway in the library's children's department. Adult nonfiction borrowing reached 55 per cent.

1. Uniform Nov. 15 opening of the deer season.
2. Removing liability of landowners for accidents in recreational use of their lands.
3. More severe penalties for violation of game and fish laws.

4. Continued support of the bounty system.

Millions For Rolling Stock

Soo Line directors have authorized programs covering the acquisition of 293 new freight cars and 4 locomotives and the return to service through a special repair program of 400 existing freight cars.

In addition, the Soo will spend more than $2 million in an expanded program of improvements to fixed property, including communications equipment, track-maintenance and shop machinery and additional trackwork.

The Soo's 1964 new equipment acquisition program will cost some $5.2 million. It covers 93 cars which will be custom-designed for custom services and 200 cars which will be equipped with modern components such as cushioned couplers and roller-bearing trucks and placed in general service.

The acquisition program also covers the purchase of four 2,500-horsepower locomotives to add to the fleet of 24 locomotive units acquired in the past two years. The four new units will replace six less powerful units currently in service.

The freight car repair program will cost more than $1 million. It is designed to return to service, over the next two years, 400 general-service box cars.

In addition, the Soo will increase its rail, tie and ballast programs during 1964, resume its long-range program of streamlining right-of-way cuts to improve drainage, stabilize the roadbed and eliminate snow blockades, and continue the modernization of its track maintenance forces through the use of highly mobile maintenance gangs equipped with highway-rail trucks.

Chips And Splinters

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

Beatle Banter, the country's newest conversation craze took over last night as a group of Escanaba women turned from bowling to a discussion of the reaction of their teenage daughters to the quartet from England.

"They aren't great singers, but they are nice, well behaved young gentlemen. They had no idea they would get such a wild reception in this country."

"Reception! A $100,000 contract!" I wish one of my sons had turned out to be a Beatle!"

This ended it—"If one of mine did, I'd put him down on the floor and shear him."

Bob Hope in his TV show tonight will say he saw the arrival of the Beatles and "they were 40 pounds overweight, and that was just their hair."

Hate Message Ads

An advertisement published in the Escanaba Daily Press this week by the Citizens' Councils of America, a white supremacist organization with headquarters in Jackson, Miss., may have shocked readers who are unfamiliar with Abraham Lincoln's socio-political philosophy. The "ad" quoted three speeches by Lincoln, delivered between 1858 and 1862, in which he advocated separation of Negroes and whites and even suggested colonization of the Negroes.

Anyone who has studied the Civil War years knows that Lincoln's principal concern—indeed, his obsession—was the preservation of the Union. "I would save the Union," he wrote to Horace Greeley. "... If I could save the Union without freeing any slave, I would do it; and if I could do it by freeing all the slaves, I would do it."

It is true, as the Citizens' Councils maintain, that Lincoln said in Charleston, Ill., on Sept. 18, 1858, "that I am not, nor ever have been, in favor of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races."

It also is true that Lincoln said in Chicago on July 10 of that same year: "Let us discard all this quibbling about this man and the other man, this race and that race and the other race being inferior, and therefore they must be placed in an inferior position. Let us discard all these things and unite as one people throughout this land, until we shall once more stand up declaring that all men are created equal."

And it is true that he signed the Emancipation Proclamation and, more importantly, supported the 13th Amendment to the Constitution, abolishing slavery.

The Citizens' Councils message does not quote Lincoln out of literary context, but it does quote him out of historical context. There can be no doubt where Lincoln would stand on segregation were he alive today.

This is expressed by Richard N. Current in his biography, "The Lincoln Nobody Knows," in which he says: "The most remarkable thing about him was his tremendous power of growth. He grew in sympathy, in the breadth of his humanitarianism, as he grew in other aspects of the mind and spirit. In more ways than one he succeeded in breaking through the narrow bounds of his early environment (Kentucky, southern Indiana and central Illinois, which then had laws depriving Negroes of their rights).

"This helps to explain and to reconcile those conflicting images of Lincoln—on the one hand, the racist; on the other, the champion of the common man, black as well as white. The one view reflects the position he started from, the other the position he was moving toward. There is confusion regarding particular phases of his presidential career because nobody knows for sure just what point he had reached at any given moment. But there should be little question as to which way he was going."

But the Citizens' Councils are not interested in understanding Lincoln's philosophy. They are interested only in distorting it to serve their own vicious purposes. This is typical of the messages of all hate groups who thrive in the very democracy they unwittingly seek to destroy.

These hate groups are the descendants of the Know-Nothings of the last century, about whom Lincoln wrote to his friend, Joshua Speed, "As a nation we began by declaring that 'all men are created equal.' We now practically read it 'all men are created equal except Negroes.' When the Know-Nothings get control, it will read 'all men are created equal, except Negroes and foreigners and Catholics.' When it comes to this, I shall prefer emigrating to some country where they make no pretense of loving liberty—to Russia, for instance, where despotism can be taken pure, and without the base alloy of hypocrisy."

If the Citizens' Councils remain intent on playing the game of quotations, perhaps they should ponder Lincoln's four immortal words: "With malice toward none."

Worse Than Dropouts

Great attention is being focused on high school dropouts these days, but another group of students is more to be pitied—those who take college preparatory courses and graduate with only Cs or worse.

That is the opinion of Norman C. Harris, a professor of technical education at the University of Michigan. "They have no saleable skill," explains Harris, "most four-year colleges will not admit them and they are not prepared to begin an occupation education program in a two-year college. And there are several hundred thousand of these youngsters every year."

To these should be added the fresh crop of students who by virtue of high school diplomas were admitted to state universities last September, only to be weeded out in January.

Harris advocates pretechnical programs in high schools that are planned in co-operation with nearby community colleges or technical institutes.

Whether C students in academic courses would turn into A or B students in a technical curriculum is another question. In cases where poor counseling or parental pressure forced an uninterested student into a college prep major, this might be true.

One thing is clear, though: As job competition and college entrance competition sharpen with the years, the so-so scholar will find that the middle of the road is full of chuckholes.

Washington Comment

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The Negro drive in the North, stepping up again after months of quiet, is not all militancy and marching. Clearly visible strains of caution and conservatism show themselves in potential hot spots.

An example is Philadelphia, scene of several racial outbursts in 1963. Minor rumblings already have been felt this year.

Philadelphia's Negro leaders, of course, press for steady, good-faith action on jobs, housing, schools. They dislike the present state of things. But not all of them look for miracles of Negro progress the day after tomorrow.

Seek them out in their troubled city and you will hear opinions like these:

● The city's white leaders—and citizens—have been awakened to the Negroes' problems. Contact between the races gets better all the time.

A prominent white politician's daughter dropped in at the Urban League to offer help. Many others do the same, including "social action" groups from white churches.

● Businessmen try honestly to place Negroes in good jobs. Their personnel men constantly tap Negro organizations in the search. The city's unique job training program, geared to specifically available jobs, is further tangible proof.

● But no pressure, no campaign of demonstration will assure skilled, well-paying work for all unemployed or unskilled Negroes. Handicaps in schooling put many thousands beyond effective reach of retraining.

● Last year's riot over entry of a Negro family into white suburban Folcroft was not typical. Through the months more than 100 Negro families have been installed in Philadelphia suburbs without fuss.

Some white resistance to desegregation.

segregation of housing, in city and suburb, is to be expected. But Negro spokesmen insist it will not be as grave as white politicians fear—at the polls or elsewhere.

● In education, a frequently held, though not general, view is that the Negro wants better schooling above all, rather than desegregation for its own sake. The two are said by some to be bound up simply because the whites have the good schools.

"We shouldn't want to bus little children across town just to have a white child sit next to a Negro," says an NAACP official.

What troubles such leaders is the fact of overcrowded, poorly equipped Negro schools within easy bus ride of underused white schools.

Taking note of white parents' concern over a school "mix," one Negro Philadelphiaan says:

"We understand well enough that they are afraid of poor, ignorant, underprivileged Negro kids being moved into their schools.

"The thing to do is get the education level of the Negro children up to decent standard. Then no one will be afraid."

Leaders cite cases where, when standards at mixed schools prove good, white parent-teacher associations actually urge further desegregation.

None of these cautious, unimpaired, basically hopeful opinions among some Negro leaders should be misread as complacency. The line between these men and the militants can vanish swiftly.

A Negro lawyer asked a white friend to look in the mirror.

"See that fellow there?" he went on. The white friend nodded.

The Negro then said: "What he wants, I want."

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.

Q—What is the difference between a stomach ulcer and a nervous stomach? My doctor thinks I have an ulcer but he is treating me for both conditions.

A—A stomach ulcer is an organic disease but it is aggravated by worry, anger or anxiety. That is why your doctor is attacking your problem on two fronts. The typical ulcer pain is localized with a finger tip just above the navel and comes on an hour or two after eating. The person who has a nervous stomach has a vague pain throughout the abdomen that may be present immediately after eating. It is likely to occur when the victim is nervously upset without any relation to the time of eating.

A doctor does not usually like to make a definite diagnosis of ulcer without X-ray proof, because there is a great deal of variation in the way these conditions affect different individuals.

Q—What causes intercostal neuralgia and what can be done to get rid of it?

A—The most common cause of severe neuralgic pains between the ribs is shingles. The pains may persist long after the acute infection has subsided. Pills are of little use in treating this condition. If the pain is severe you should consider having the affected nerve injected with alcohol or, for more permanent relief, having the nerve cut.

Q—I am 42 years old and have had nystagmus all my life. What causes it and is there any cure?

A—Nystagmus is a rapid involuntary oscillation of the eyes. When it occurs in infancy it may be due to a retinal defect, an eye infection, congenital cataract or albinism. It may develop in later life in miners and in persons with multiple sclerosis, or peripheral neuritis. Temporary nystagmus is present in the type of dizziness induced by whirling around rapidly in one direction. Manganese poisoning and lead poisoning may also cause it. For most of these causes there is no cure.

Q—I am a model. About a year ago I began getting welts or hives on my body where my girdle or my hose pressed on my skin. My doctor said I was allergic to the soap I was using. I changed soap and it gradually cleared up but now it has come back and my doctor doesn't know what is causing it. What should I do?

A—You do not say whether your doctor did a patch test when this trouble started to prove that your soap was the cause. If he doesn't know the cause of your present hives (usually some form of allergy), you should consult a skin specialist or an allergist.

Indian Lake Fish Stocking Planned; Other Work Set

The Indian Lake Property Owners Assn. plans to repeat their walleye and northern pike planting of Indian Lake this spring, Howard K. Dressler, president reports.

Last year the property owners hired commercial fishermen to trap in Lake Michigan for the planting. The tally was 250 walleyes and 165 pike. To date, no catch of the tagged fish has been reported. It is hoped even more can be planted this year.

The Michigan Conservation Department, Newberry district office, reports winter fishing has been good for walleye, yellow perch and northern pike in Indian Lake.

The department's fish management program is based on stock planting of species in a lake when the species is nearing depletion from overfishing or some adverse biological phenomena. It does not plant where a species of fish is already well established.

The Department's present plans call for continuing trout stocking in waters previously stocked on a give and take basis, Leland R. Anderson, district fisheries supervisor reports. Most of these are brook, brown and rainbow trout of legal size.

The stocking will be about the same amount as in 1963, when 14,150 legal brook, 2,100 legal brown, 7,500 legal and 3,000 fingerlings were planted, and 288 adult northern pike in Schoolcraft County.

Indian Bible 300 Years Old

BOSTON (AP)—Forty years of heartbreaking toil to produce a thousand-page bible that no man can read!

The 200th anniversary of the printing of that Bible and the monumental work that went into it will be celebrated by the Massachusetts Bible Society this year.

It was the first whole Bible printed in the Western Hemisphere, in any language, during the Colonial period, the society says. It was an Indian Bible, translated by John Eliot, Puritan "apostle to the Indians." History calls it the John Eliot bible.

Eliot had to learn an Algonquin language which existed as a spoken language only. For the spoken words he had to create a phonetic, written form. And then he had to translate the Bible into the written language he had created.

The Bible continued in use on Martha's Vineyard and on Cape Cod in the 1700s. But today, there is no one who can read it or who understands the language—not even among descendants of the Mashpee and Vineyard Indians.

John Eliot was driven from England in 1631 because of his outspoken Puritan sentiments. Coming to Massachusetts he sought to improve the living conditions of the Indians.

Printing of his Indian Bible was completed in 1664. At end of three years, 1,040 copies had been printed and bound.

A few copies still exist, bearing names and annotations of their original Indian and white owners.

Profit Records Set By Big 3

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler's 1963 record earnings — all-time high profits of $161.6 million — clinch the automobile industry's position as a major contributor to the nation's fast economic pace.

The Chrysler announcement Thursday of its earnings completed a Big Three auto industry combination of record income for last year. General Motors and Ford previously reported profits records.

Chrysler's earnings were nearly 2½ times its profit of 1962, illustrating the company's rousing comeback from bad times of a few years ago.

Auto industry record — busting helped in the big U.S. economic push of 1963 during which corporation profits hit new peak levels.

Autos are usually the pace-setter for business in general. The Chrysler earnings, equal to $4.35 a common share, compared to the company's 1962 profit of $65.4 million or $1.81 a share. Chrysler's previous record was $132.2 million in 1949, or $3.80 a share.

Chrysler's earnings were announced in New York by Lynn A. Townsend, president, and George H. Love, board chairman, the team generally credited with heading the company's resurgence.

Fourth quarter earnings last year were a record $60.86 million, or 21 per cent above the previous fourth quarter high of 1962.

Chrysler's record ensued from a rise in sales in one year from $2.37 billion to $3.5 billion.

Dividends for the year totaled $16.1 million, an increase of $9 million over 1962.

Chrysler's passenger car sales jumped 38 per cent from 1962 and its truck sales 30 per cent. The gains reflected Chrysler's comeback. For the industry as a whole car sales in 1963 were up 9 per cent and trucks 15 per cent.

with Ray Crandall

The surprising Stephenson Eagles came up with another shocker this week when they spilled heavily favored Menominee 75-61. In gaining revenge for an earlier 62-53 setback to the Maroons, Stephenson led all the way and at one time had a big 46-23 cushion. Jim Dougovito, 5 foot 7 inch spark-plug, paced Coach Guss Lord's Eagles with 24 points.

Niagara, another surprise team this season, clinched at least a share of the Menominee Range Conference title by defeating Norway 63-53. The defending champion Badgers lost three of their first six starts but since then have rattled off 11 straight victories and own a 10-2 record in the conference. Only Kingsford with an 8-2 record and two games to go can catch the Badgers.

Felch tuned up for its big game at Carney tonight by edging Alpha 67-65 in Big Eight Conference action. The Foresters trailed until the final four minutes of the game when a flurry of free throws put them ahead to stay. Carl Steele paced Coach Carl Lemm's quint with 25 points, 10 coming in the final period.

The Soo Blue Devils, needing a victory over Gladstone next Friday to clinch the Great Lakes Conference championship, will be shooting for revenge tonight when they host downstate Alpena. In the first meeting of the teams Alpena won 61-60 to snap Soo's four game winning string at the beginning of the season. Besides Alpena, only Stephenson and Ishpeming have been able to beat Soo this season.

Great Lakes Conference teams have improved their record against non-conference competition in recent weeks, but still have a miserable mark this season. In 26 games against non-league foes, Great Lakes teams have won only 8 while losing 18. Holy Name has accounted for seven of those setbacks.

Dom Jacobetti missed his first five field goal attempts but then plunked in 13 straight to lead Negaunee St. Paul to an 82-56 triumph over Champion. Jacobetti finished with 33 points as the Emeralds notched their 14th victory in 15 starts.

The leading scorer in the United States Hockey League this season is Gene Rebellato of the Green Bay Bobcats with 34 points on eight goals and 26 assists. Rebellato was the outstanding catcher on the Canadian Soo softball team that reached the Upper Peninsula Class B finals before bowing to Escanaba Mead 2-0 in nine innings. Todd Butler pitched a two-hitter and belted a two-run homer for Mead.

Twin City ice yachtsmen will host the Wisconsin Stern Steers Assn., a new ice boating organization, for the 1965 Association races. The Stern Steers are limited to Class A and B ice yachts.

The new Escanaba Area Public High School gym could be the site of a state tournament quarterfinal basketball game in March. Because of the large number of Class D teams in the U.P., two regional tournaments are staged, one with four U.P. teams competing at Northern and another with three U.P. and two downstate district champs competing at St. Ignace.

If the winner of the St. Ignace regional is a team which qualified from the Rock or Manistique districts, the quarterfinal game against the Northern regional winner will be played at the Eskymo gym. If the winner of the St. Ignace regional is a team which qualified from a downstate district, the quarterfinal game will be played below the Straits. If the St. Ignace regional winner is a team from the Pickford district, the quarterfinal will be staged at Soo High.

The teams competing in the district tournament at Rock will be Eben, Bark River-Harris, Perkins, Rapid River, Trenary and Rock. The teams in the district at Manistique will be Cooks, Engadine, Garden, Nahma and Grand Marais.

TOM DOMRES, standout fullback and tackle on the Gladstone High School football team last fall, has been named to the honorable mention list on the Coach & Athlete's 1963 prep All-American football squad. The announcement was made in the January issue of the Coach & Athlete's Magazine. Domres, a first team choice on the All-Upper Peninsula football squad, has received scholarship offers from Michigan State, University of Michigan and University of Wisconsin.

Four Escanaba Fighters Will Box In Green Bay

Four Escanaba boxers will carry Upper Peninsula colors Saturday night in the annual Golden Gloves bouts at Brown County Arena, Green Bay, against champions from Fond du Lac.

The Green Bay bouts, staged by Savvy Canoe of Green Bay Associated Boys Club Charities, will begin at 9 p. m., Escanaba time.

Escanaba boxers who earned the right to advance to Green Bay by winning Upper Peninsula crowns here last Saturday night are Roland Vanderlinden at 118 pounds, Fran Roberts at 126, Ron Lindstrom at 135 and Pud Blowers at 160, all in the novice class.

They led Coach LeRoy Sovey's Escanaba club to the team championship in the 22nd annual Upper Peninsula Golden Gloves tournament. Escanaba boxers won 12 bouts in the two night tourney to succeed Menominee as winner of the coveted team trophy.

Vanderlinden, who won the U. P. bantamweight crown by decisioning Bill Roberts of Manistique, will face Pete Okimish of Keshena at Green Bay.

Roberts will take on Don Askenett of Neopit for the Green Bay featherweight title. The Escanaba scrapper won his Upper Peninsula crown by outpointing Bill Lindahl of Menominee in the semifinals and scoring a TKO over team mate Dave Richards in the third round of the championship bout.

Lindstrom had a rugged road to the U. P. novice lightweight throne. Competing in the ring for the first time, Lindstrom scored a decision over rugged Sid Beaudou of Menominee on opening night. The following Saturday, Lindstrom outpointed Wayne Juhl of Escanaba in the semifinals and edged Terry Sovey of Escanaba in the finals.

At Green Bay, Lindstrom will meet John LaTender of Neopit.

Blowers notched two decisions enroute to his U. P. middleweight title. He beat Quentin Randolph of K. I. Sawyer on opening night and squeaked past team mate Dave Wallin in the finals.

Rounding out the Upper Peninsula novice champions who will fight in Green Bay are Tim Davis of Menominee, 112 pounds; Jerry Bohan of Menominee, 147 pounds, and Formus White of Sawyer, 175 pounds.

Winners of Upper Peninsula open championships were Art Lopez of Sawyer, 112; Dick Schomer of Menominee, 118; Frank Ciriza of Sawyer, 126; Dewaine Dixon of Manistique, 135; Larry Bosanic of Manistique, 147; Ted Beaudou of Menominee, 160, and Neal Beaudou of Menominee, 175.

Following the Green Bay bouts, the Golden Gloves tournament trail extends to Keshena on Feb. 20. The national finals will be held this year in Louisville.

Rookie Boxer Make Debut

NEW YORK (AP) — Frankie Narvaez, an untied New Yorker with an unbeaten streak of 11, makes his big time debut tonight as a surprising 8-5 choice over lightweight contender Luis Molina of San Jose, Calif., at Madison Square Garden.

The 10-rounder will be telecast nationally by ABC-TV. Starting time is 10 p. m., EST.

Although he is ranked No. 5 among the 135-pound division's contenders, Molina will be making his first appearance in the Garden, once the mecca of boxing.

On the basis of his record and the calibre of opponents he has met, the 25-year-old Californian figures to have the edge over the 24-year-old, Puerto Rican-born Narvaez. The odds seem out of line.

Molina, an aggressive fighter with a knockout wallop has a 24-3 record, including 17 knockouts. He holds victories over Joe Lopez and Len Matthews, onetime contenders, and over former lightweight champion Joe Brown. He never has been stopped.

Narvaez has a 17-1-1 record, including only three knockouts. His only loss was a decision to Roland Kellum and he whipped the Jamaican in a return bout.

O'Hara Smashes Indoor Record For Mile Run

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom O'Hara is a red-haired, freckled little fellow about the size of a football waterboy who talks — when pressed — about running a mile in 3 minutes, 54 seconds.

This, of course, puts him on the modest, self-effacing side. Modest? Well, yes. Particularly so when his coach says he's going to go 3:53 before the season is out.

"He definitely is the man to beat in the Olympic 1,500 meters in Tokyo," jubilant Coach Jerry Weiland said today. "I think he will break Peter Snell's outdoor record with a 3:53 mile before long."

O'Hara, a 21-year-old student at Loyola of Chicago, was a little more conservative, even after trimming two full seconds off the indoor record in the New York A. C. Games in Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

"I believe I can do 3:54," the soft-spoken little guy said.

He convinced 13,677 Madison Square Garden customers with a brilliant 3:56.6 effort in the mile Thursday night—the fastest ever run indoors—whipping over the last two laps virtually alone while the crowd howled: "Go, go, go."

Big, burly Bob Hayes of Florida AM also turned in an outstanding show, equalling the indoor mark of 6 seconds flat in the 60-yard dash, the fourth time this season he has hit it.

Other major winners included Gary Gubner, NYU, in the shot put, at 63-21; Lew Hoyt of Southern California in the high jump at 7-1; John Uelses, LaSalle, pole vault, 16-14; Roy Hicks, U.S. Army, 60-yard hurdles, 7.3; Wendell Motley, Yale, 440-yard dash, 48.3; Bill Crothers, Toronto, 880-yard run, 1:50.8; Jay Luck, New Haven Track Club, 500-yard run, 57 flat, and Bruce Kidd, Toronto, 2-mile run, 8:42.6.

Clay, Liston Trade Offers To Kiss Feet

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"If you whup me, I'll crawl across the ring on my hands and knees and kiss your feet. If you lose, will you do the same? Answer me, chump, will you do it?"

Cassius Clay, who seems unusually interested in foot kissing, was challenging Sonny Liston Thursday at a unique news conference. Theater Network Television, which will handle the Feb. 25 heavyweight title match, arranged for special closed circuit television from the fighters' camps in Miami Beach to their lab on Long Island.

"About kissing my feet, Cassius," said the heavyweight champion. "If you last through the third round into the fourth, I'll kiss your feet."

Clay and Liston answered questions from newsmen and then jawed back and forth from opposite ends of Miami Beach.

"You want to fight me, winner take all?" asked Liston, a challenge that would have warmed the heart of the late Jack Kearns. Jack always was proposing fight - to-the-finish, winner-take-all battles in Nome or Vladivostok.

"I tell you what we'll do," said Clay. "Your backers take their cut and mine take theirs and I'll meet you at the front door."

"Listen, Cassius," said Liston. "I'm gonna give you half of mine if you show up."

Sonny sat at ringside without a smile while Clay tried to bait him with his prediction:

"I'm gonna upset the whole world. I'm bigger than he is. I'll be about 221 pounds. This is not going to be a giant fighting any Floyd Patterson. This man is scared to death. He'll still try to back out of the fight."

When asked if he belonged to the Muslims, a Negro supremacy organization, Clay replied:

"This is fight talk. I have no answer to that kind of question. I want two whole hours on television to tell my whole story after the fight. If I am bad and done wrong, I'm ready to go to jail. I haven't set the dogs on anybody. I'm tending my business."

Liston was asked if he hated Cassius and got this type of an answer:

"I want to leave him with his pretty face so he can get by with it."

Oh yes, Cassius the poet said it again:

"I'm predicting eight to prove I'm great."

The whole show lasted 45 minutes. That may be about 43 minutes longer than the fight.

Furman Upsets Davidson Quint

By The Associated Press

Furman made college basketball history a decade ago when the Paladins walloped Newberry 149-95 and Frank Selvy scored 100 points for an individual single game NCAA record that still stands.

Exactly 10 years from that historic night of Feb. 13, 1954, Furman turned in another memorable performance by upsetting the Davidson Wildcats, the nation's fourth-ranked team 70-55.

"We have some special plans for them, and we're going to make them work letter perfect," said Furman Coach Lyles Alley before the game.

That's just what his boys did as they avenged an early season 89-63 trouncing by Davidson to hand the Wildcats their second defeat of the season in 20 starts.

A capacity crowd of 5,600, including Frank Selvy as honor guest, howled in glee at Greenville, S.C., as the Paladins turned the game into a rout with a 14-4 burst late in the game. Drake stayed on top of the Missouri Valley Conference with a 53-50 victory over North Texas, Bradley downed Tulsa 73-64 in overtime, Providence won its 12th straight by defeating Rhode Island 86-72, Wyoming beat Denver 77-68 and Houston whipped Miami, Fla., 93-83 in other Thursday night games.

Davidson, the only team in The Associated Press Top Ten to play, took an early 10-point lead, was ahead at 33-32 in the second half when the inspired Furman players spurred and opened a 17-point lead at 64-47. Don Frye, with 18 points, and Frank Selvy's brother, David, with 17 led Furman along with Norman Schaffer who held Davidson's star, Fred Hetzel, to 16 points.

Nahma Clinches Second Straight Central Crown

Coach Owen Peterson's Nahma Arrows have their second straight Central League basketball championship safely tucked away.

The Arrows clinched the 1963-64 trophy when they defeated Garden 77-64 while Rock was surprising runnerup Trenary 63-48 last weekend.

Nahma has a 13-1 league record with two games to go. Eben is 9-3 and Trenary 8-3 but both those teams play 15 league games to Nahma's 16 and can't catch up in the win column.

St. Louis, Mo. 200 Years Old

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — St. Louis begins a two-year celebration of its 200th birthday today with a Valentine's Day visit by President Johnson.

The President may not find the usual Feb. 14 atmosphere of hearts and flowers. Not only will 1,000 Missouri Republicans be pitching political war at their annual Lincoln Day rally, but some civil rights advocates have threatened to demonstrate. Johnson will begin the bicentennial celebration with a 20-minute nonpolitical speech to a sell-out crowd of 1,800 at a St. Louis hotel tonight.

The President is scheduled to arrive by plane from Washington at 4:45 p.m. He will visit the partially built 630-foot high gateway arch on the Mississippi riverfront, see a new industrial area and address students and plant a tree at St. Louis University.

The President is scheduled to fly back to Washington tonight.

Tokyo Prodded To Recognize Peking Regime

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's left wing and some businessmen are applying the pressure on the government to follow the example of France and recognize Red China.

Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda, an Asian friend of the United States, refuses to be stampeded into abandoning his policy of nonrecognition. But he shows signs of wavering on some points.

In debate with the Socialists and Communists in Parliament Wednesday, Ikeda conceded that a new situation would arise should Red China be seated in the United Nations this fall as the sole representative of the Chinese people.

If that happens, Foreign Minister Masayoshi Ohira told Socialist Chichiro Hozumi, Japan will "normalize" its diplomatic relations with the mainland. He did not use the word recognition however. This position leaves the government room to maneuver once the issue reaches the decision-making stage.

Center For Aged Gets Union Help

The downtown Drop-In Center for senior citizens of Escanaba, located at 714 Ludington St., is the recipient of contributions from four local unions, Leo Laviolette, chairman of the project, said today.

The contributions and pledges will finance the rental of the Center, which is still in the process of being redecorated and is in need of furnishings to make it comfortable for the older persons who will use its facilities.

Carl R. Anderson, co-chairman of the Center committee of the Escanaba Council on Aging, said the contributing unions

New York City Dailies Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — Daily newspaper circulation in the United States declined by 943,437 copies last year, or 1.58 per cent, Editor and Publisher reported Thursday.

The trade magazine said daily circulation in 1963 was 59,905,251 compared to the 1962 figure of 59,848,688.

"The figures reveal that the overall loss was due entirely to the fatermath of the New York newspaper shutdown early last year and the resulting suspension of the New York Mirror," the report said.

"The loss in circulation in New York City alone for that period was 1,401,565. Circulation in the rest of the country showed an increase."

Editor and Publisher said also that there were 1,754 daily newspapers at the end of 1963, compared with 1,760 the previous year.

The report said that the number of Sunday newspapers declined from 558 to 550 and Sunday circulation dropped from 48,888,336 to 46,830,039, a loss of 2,058,297.

New York City alone accounted for a Sunday loss of 2,377,236," the magazine said, noting that the Mirror had a Sunday circulation of 1,152,858 and the National Enquirer, which was changed from Sunday newspaper to magazine status by the Audit Bureau of Circulation, had 802,943.

Foundry Union Votes To Accept Slash In Wages

MUSKEGON (AP) — In a second ballot, union employees of Lakey Foundry Corp. here have voted to accept a proposal calling for a wage cut averaging 13½ cents per hour to help keep their firm competitive.

The vote Wednesday at a meeting of United Auto Workers Local 403 affects more than 1,100 workers. The reduction, to continue in force until Feb. 15, 1965, also affects salaried non-union employees of Lakey.

Union members last month rejected a company request that they take a 19-cent hourly pay cut. Spokesmen claimed the proposal would not have applied to non-union employees.

Organized employees received an average of $2.70 per hour before the cut.

Management representatives said the union action Wednesday would enable the firm to continue operations until some economic proposals, including relocation of the company in modern new quarters at Muskegon, can be worked out.

"Both lounge and folding chairs are needed for the Center," said Laviolette. "Floor lamps, davenport, end tables and table lamps — anything that will make for a more comfortable Center — are needed."

"We will have someone pick up items that are contributed. All that needs to be done is to telephone ST 6-4067 and give the name and address. We'll do the rest."

Mrs. Frank Boyle, wife of one of the Center committee-men, will take the contribution calls.

The Center will provide a friendly and comfortable place for older persons to rest and to meet their friends when they are downtown. Telephone, television and other service and recreation facilities are planned.

General Defends U.S. Shooting At Korean Thieves

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Gen. Hamilton H. Howze, commander of U.S. forces in Korea, and U.S. Ambassador Samuel D. Berger today defended American guards who have shot Koreans pilfering Army property.

The two briefed leading Korean newspapermen after a Korean lawyer's group protested series of shootings as "excessive penalties for thievery."

Howze said the theft of military supplies in Korea totals more than $70,000 monthly and asked: "How are we to know the difference between a common thief and a saboteur actually intent on doing very severe damage to us?"

Oil Stations Put In Restaurants

The restaurant can accommodate 74 patrons, at tables or booths for those who want a full meal, or at a counter for those in more of a hurry. Carry-out service also is available.

The building also includes a small gift shop where necessities, reading material, souveniers and other articles are sold.

Vice Revealed In Ceylon Hostel

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — A cleanup of prostitution at the government's Sravasti hostel for out-of-town Parliament members was promised today by Hugh Fernando, speaker of Ceylon's House of Representatives.

Members in both the House and the Senate complained that school teachers desiring promotion or transfer have had to submit to lawmakers living at the hostel, that taxi drivers were steering call girls there and that known narcotics peddlers had moved in as guests of certain lawmakers.

Three Cut Off Oil Well Fire

JACKSON (AP) — Soaked with water beforehand, three men darted through flames Thursday in helping to extinguish an oil well fire about eight miles southwest of here.

One of the trio, Robert Hester of Hanover, was hospitalized with smoke inhalation. Neither he nor his two companions, Les Kerr and his brother, Herbert, of Pulaski, suffered burns.

The three, all independent oil well drillers, drove two miles to lend assistance upon learning that the blaze had erupted in a well on the Dean Center property.

Flames were shooting 200 to 300 feet high when Hester and the Kerr brothers asked firemen to douse them with water. The three then ran through the flames and shut off the valves controlling the flow of oil and gas in the 4,200-foot well.

Firemen from Hanover, Horton and Concord had the blaze extinguished about 45 minutes after it started.

The well, known as Wolverine Center 2B, has been in production since Feb. 2. One other well is located on the Center property.

Hester and the Kerr brothers have leases on other Center property and plan to drill later.

Pressure in the well was believed to have started Thursday's fire. There was no immediate estimate of the loss.

Flint Man May Oppose Mackie

LANSING (AP) — State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie may run into home town opposition in his drive for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the new seventh district.

Rep. Albert R. Horrigan — A Democrat from Flint, Mackie's former residence — says he is considering challenging Mackie for the Democratic nomination. Mackie announced for the Congressional seat Wednesday.

Horrigan, assistant Democratic floor leader in the House, said:

"I'm not afraid of him at all. He's a good highway commissioner — but that doesn't mean anything in Congress."

Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski, linked by Mackie's endorsement of the gubernatorial candidacy of Democratic Congressman-at-Large Neil Stabler, said he will back Horrigan. Lesinski has said he is considering seeking the nomination for governor in opposition to Stabler.

Mackie, 43, finishes his last term as highway commissioner June 30, 1965. The new State Constitution has changed the post from an elective to an appointive one.

England Will Keep Trade With Cuba, Johnson Told

Douglas-Home made it clear his country does not believe in trade discrimination and would grant such credits to the Communists in the same way it does to other countries. Thus far, however, no long-term credit has been granted.

BIG DEALS SET UP

LONDON (AP) — Plans to sell British road building equipment to Cuba and to extend a huge credit to the Soviet Union for massive purchases of factories were reported today.

The disclosures came as Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home headed home from Washington after making clear to President Johnson that Britain intends to continue trade with Cuba and the Communist bloc. He says Britain must trade to survive.

Three Cuban government officials arrived to negotiate for the purchase of road rollers and earth-moving equipment, said to value $1.4 million.

At the same time a group of London banks was reported preparing a credit to finance a deal with the Soviet Union for up to $48 million worth of British fertilizer and other non-strategic chemical plants.

Colin Ryan, managing director of the Aveling Barford plant at Grantham, said his firm is negotiating to sell road rollers and earth-moving equipment to Cuba. He did not give the value of the transaction but said the amount is substantial.

Ruby Trial May Start Monday

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Attorneys for both the state and defense, awaiting a decision today on a change of venue motion, said they are prepared to start questioning prospective jurors Monday for the Jack Ruby murder trial.

Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown said he would rule at 3 p.m. (EST) on the defense's request to move the trial to another city in Texas. He could grant the motion, deny it, or could reserve a final decision until after efforts are made to empanel a jury here. The trial is scheduled to begin Monday if it is not transferred.

Melvin Belli, chief defense counsel, said Thursday he believed "the chances are pretty good" that Brown would direct the lawyers to try to get a jury here. But Belli predicted that a jury could not be picked and that he would then get a change of venue.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, who opposed transferring the case, said he is ready to start the trial of Ruby, who killed Lee Harvey Oswald in the city jail Nov. 24 before a nationwide television audience.

For the year to date production totals 1,079,067 cars as against 1,029,094 to the corresponding date last year, Automotive News said.

Truck production this week was reported a scheduled 30,458 as compared to 31,414 last week and 29,537 for the like last year.

Straits Cities Raise Fund To Fight Rail Cuts

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Prentiss Brown Jr., St. Ignace attorney, has been named treasurer of a committee seeking to raise $7,500 to fight proposed curtailment of railroad service in northern Lower Michigan.

Donald Deinzor of Cheboygan, committee executive secretary, announced Thursday that Cheboygan, Mackinac City, Onaway and Gaylord already have pledged contributions totaling $1,775 toward the goal.

The New York Central and Detroit & Mackinac railroads seek to reduce service in the area. Mackinac Transportation Co., meanwhile, has petitioned for permission to discontinue train ferry service across the Straits of Mackinac.

Trout Ladders Proposed For Gogebic County

LANSING (AP) — A proposal for a fish ladder to help rainbow trout in their spawning grounds in the Upper Peninsula was heard Thursday by the Conservation Commission.

Rep. Joseph Mack, R-Ironwood, said the fish ladder would provide a new fishing area for the rainbows in the Presque Isle River of Gogebic County and also would constitute a major tourist attraction. He did not provide cost estimates or say exactly where the ladder should be located.

President Stays Late For Dancing In East Ballroom

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson stayed until after the ball was over and only a rollicking polka drove him perspiring from the dance floor.

It was party in honor of British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and his wife on their last night in town, but no one appeared to enjoy it more than the host.

The First Family invited 136 guests to the formal state dinner Thursday night and asked 200 more in for dancing afterward in the East Ballroom.

The prime minister joined the dancers but left early, at 10:40 p.m.

Johnson paused to see his guests to the door, then returned to the dancing, hardly missing a number and often switching partners in mid-dance.

He finally retired to the upstairs family quarters, taking along a group of guests.

The evening climaxed a two-day meeting between the president and prime minister.
